

INTERGOVERNMENTAL OCEANOGRAPHIC COMMISSION
(of Unesco)

Twelfth Session of the Assembly

Paris, 3-20 November 1982

TECHNICAL ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE BIENNIAL ELECTIONS
OF OFFICERS OF THE COMMISSION AND OTHER MEMBERS OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 During the course of each ordinary session, the Assembly, taking into account the principles of geographical distribution, shall elect :

(a) a Chairman and four Vice-Chairmen who shall be the officers of the Commission, its Assembly, and its Executive Council, in accordance with Article No.5, para. 5(a) of the Statutes of the Commission;

(b) the Member States of the Executive Council, each of which shall designate its Representative on the Council, in accordance with Article 5, para. 4, of the Statutes of the Commission.

1.2 The term of office of the members of the Executive Council shall commence at the end of the session of the Assembly during which they have been elected and expire at the end of the next ordinary session of the Assembly (Article 5, para. 6 of the Statutes of the Commission).

2. ELECTIONS OF OFFICERS

2.1 The elections for new officers - the Chairman and four Vice-Chairmen - will be held successively in the order : the Chairman, followed by the First, Second, Third and Fourth Vice-Chairmen (Rule of Procedure No. 13). The five officers elected must be nationals of different Member States (Article 5 of the Statutes of the Commission).

2.2 Each candidate for election to the posts of Chairman or the four Vice-Chairmen shall be correctly proposed and seconded (see paragraph 5.4 below). In signing the nomination form, the representative of the Member State is declaring the willingness of his government to allow the nominee to take on the obligations that would devolve upon him should he be elected.

2.3 The Chairman and each Vice-Chairman shall be eligible for re-election in their capacity as Chairman or Vice-Chairman, but only once for successive terms (Rule of Procedure No. 17).

2.4 Officers seeking re-election require nomination as for new candidates (see paragraph 5.4 below).

3. ELECTION OF THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

- 3.1 Elections for membership of the Executive Council will be held on completion of the elections for the Officers of the Commission. All Member States are eligible with the exception of those five of which the Chairman and four Vice-Chairmen just elected are nationals (Article 5, para. 5d of the Statutes of the Commission).
- 3.2 The number of Member States to be elected will depend on Rule of Procedure No. 18, in force at the time of the election, taking into account geographical distribution (Article 5, para. 4 of the Statutes of the Commission).
- 3.3 Member States wishing to be considered for election to the Executive Council should inform the Secretary in writing, using the form attached hereto as Annex I.
- 3.4 State members of the Executive Council are eligible for re-election (Rule of Procedure No. 18).

4. VOTING

- 4.1 Voting will be carried out by secret ballot using the procedures laid down in Rule of Procedure No. 47 (copy attached as Annex II to this document).

5. NOMINATIONS

- 5.1 A Nominations Committee will be appointed by the Steering Committee of the Assembly (Rule of Procedure No. 12, para. 2).
- 5.2 Under the terms of Resolution EC-I.11, the Nominations Committee's function will be to accept nominations for :

(i) the posts of Chairman and Vice-Chairmen of the Commission;

(ii) seats on the Executive Council;

and to forward all such nominations to the Assembly, having ensured that each one is seconded and that the nominee is prepared to stand and to take an active part in the work of the Commission.

- 5.3 In order to carry out its mandate, the Nominations Committee must therefore receive the Member States' nominations which, in accordance with Article 5, para. 4 of the Statutes of the Commission, may include :

(i) nominations of individuals for the posts of Chairman and the four Vice-Chairmen, with a precise indication of the post(s) for which each person is nominated (the form attached hereto as Annex III should be used);

(ii) nominations of Member States for the remaining seats on the Executive Council (the form attached hereto as Annex I may be used).

- 5.4 Nominations for the posts of Chairman and the four Vice-Chairmen shall be submitted to the Secretary in writing using the standard form attached hereto as Annex III; each candidate must be correctly proposed and seconded; either the proposer or the seconder must be a representative of the government of the Member State of which the nominee is a national (as shown on the standard form).

Nominations will be called for in advance of each Assembly session and the closing time for acceptance of nominations will be two full working days before the date of the elections.

5.5 Each nomination shall contain a declaration from the candidate that he is prepared to stand for the post for which he has been nominated and is willing to take on the obligations that would devolve upon him should he be elected (Resolution EC-I.11).

5.6 Nominations for the posts of Chairman and First, Second or Third Vice-Chairman may be accompanied by a statement to the effect that, should the nominee not be elected to the post in question, he will be a candidate for a post in subsequent elections. This information will be kept confidential until after the previous election has been completed.

5.7 The countries of all failed candidates in the elections for Officers will be automatically included in the list of States' candidates for election to the Executive Council, unless the Head of any Delegation indicates that he does not wish his country to be considered for election.

6. ELECTION PROCEDURE

6.1 The Chairman will introduce this document and a short debate will be held for the sole purpose of clarifying any procedural arrangements.

6.2 The Chairman will announce the title of the post (or membership of the Executive Council) open to election.

6.3 Ballot Forms (blue for election of Officers, orange for election of other members of the Executive Council) will be distributed. Additional copies (white) will be made available in order to allow delegates to record the votes as they are called out and to check the final totals announced.

6.4 The Assistant Secretary responsible for the Nominations Committee will announce the names of the candidates whose nominations for the post open to election have been found to be in order by the Nominations Committee.

6.5 If the number of the candidates equals the number of elective places to be filled (i.e., one only in the case of the elections for Officers; but see paragraph 6.20 below in the case of elections for the Executive Council), the Chairman shall declare the candidate (or Member State) elected.

6.6 If there are more candidates than elective places, the Chairman will invite one speaker to introduce each candidate (for the posts of Chairman and Vice-Chairmen only). Selection of these speakers will be the responsibility of the Head of each nominating Delegation. In the interests of economy of time, no other statements will be permitted, either from other supporters or from the candidates themselves.

6.7 On completion of the introductory speeches, the Chairman will announce that the election is open and that votes should be cast.

6.8 A representative of each Member State "present and voting" should mark (a) cross(es) (X) against the candidate(s) of his choice on the ballot paper. No other markings should be made on the paper. The name of the Member State voting should NOT be recorded on the ballot paper.

- 6.9 For a ballot paper to be valid, it should contain a cross against only one of the names shown thereon in the case of elections for Officers and against no more than the maximum number of places open to election (see para. 6.20 below) in the case of elections for members of the Executive Council. The Chairman will decide the validity of any ballot paper.
- 6.10 The ballot box will be opened, held up to show clearly to the Assembly that it is empty; it will then be closed and locked and the key handed to the Chairman.
- 6.11 The Secretary will then read through the full list of Member States of the Commission and, as each name is read out, one member of the Delegation so called will come forward and place one ballot paper in the ballot box. The names of Member States that do not respond at the first call will be read out again at the end of the list.
- 6.12 The Secretary will announce the number of votes cast.
- 6.13 The ballot box will be opened and the number of ballot papers counted. if this does not correspond to the number of votes cast, the Chairman will declare the vote void and the procedure will be repeated.
- 6.14 The Secretary will open each ballot paper and call out the name of the candidate for whom the vote has been cast, in the election of Officers, and the names of the Member States for which votes have been cast, in the election of the Members of the Executive Council.
- 6.15 The Secretary will announce the number of valid ballot papers received. The Chairman will then declare the majority needed by any candidate for election in the first ballot (Rule of Procedure No. 47, paras. 2 and 4).
- 6.16 The votes cast for each candidate will be totalled and the Chairman will announce the result of the ballot; i.e., whether one of the candidates has been elected or whether a further ballot is needed.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN AND VICE CHAIRMEN ONLY

- 6.17 In the event of a further ballot being needed, because no candidate has obtained the necessary majority, the second ballot will be restricted to the two candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the first ballot (Rule of Procedure No. 47, para. 2).

ELECTION OF VICE-CHAIRMAN ONLY

- 6.18 The list of candidates for each Vice-Chairman's post read out by the Assistant Secretary responsible for the Nominations Committee (para. 6.4 above) will consist of the names of those candidates whose nominations for the post under election have been found to be in order by the Nominations Committee, plus the names of any candidates who have failed to get elected in earlier ballots but whose names are held by the Chairman of the Nominations Committee as wishing to be considered for election to another post in the event of non-election in earlier ballots.
- 6.19 Candidates standing in subsequent ballots for "second choice" posts are not entitled to a further introductory statement; i.e., each candidate may have only one introductory statement made on his behalf, irrespective of the number of ballots in which he stands as a candidate (see para. 6.6 above).

ELECTION OF EXECUTIVE COUNCIL ONLY

6.20 Before each ballot, the Chairman will announce the number of places open to election (taking into account Rule of Procedure No. 18 in force at the time of the election); this number will be the maximum number of crosses that may be marked on a ballot paper to ensure its validity (see para. 6.9 above).

6.21 After each ballot, the Chairman will announce the majority (i.e., the minimum number of votes) required by each candidate (Member State) to qualify for election without further ballots (Rule of Procedure No. 47, paras. 3 and 4).

6.22 In the event for a further ballot being needed because insufficient candidates (Member States) have obtained the necessary majority. The second and subsequent ballots will be restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled (Rule of Procedure No. 47, para. 3).

7. OBJECTIONS

7.1 Objections may be made only on a "point of order" immediately after the result of a ballot has been announced.

8. STATE-MEMBER REPRESENTATIVES ON THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

8.1 On completion of the elections, Heads of Delegations of Member States elected to the Executive Council (para. 3.1 above) should inform the Secretary of the name of their State-Member Representative to serve on the Executive Council, in accordance with Article 5, para. 4 of the Statutes of the Commission.

EXTRACT FROM THE IOC RULES OF PROCEDURE

Rule 47

1. Unless, in the absence of objections, it is decided otherwise, elections shall be by secret ballot.
2. When a single elective place is to be filled and no candidate obtains in the first ballot the majority required, a second ballot shall be taken which shall be restricted to the two candidates obtaining the larger number of votes. If in the second ballot the votes are equally divided, the decision shall be taken by drawing lots.
3. When two or more places are to be filled at one time under the same conditions, those candidates obtaining a majority shall be elected who receive the greatest number of votes in the first ballot up to the number of places subject to election. If all such places are not filled there shall be additional ballots to fill the remaining places, the voting being restricted to the candidates obtaining the greatest number of votes in the previous ballot, to a number not more than twice the places remaining to be filled. If, for the last place, candidates obtain the same number of votes, the decision between them shall be taken by drawing lots.
4. For elections, a majority shall be the next integer immediately above half the number of ballot papers, excluding blank or invalid ballot papers. A ballot paper shall be invalid if it contains more names than the number of places to be filled.
